

EXPLORE THE PROGRAMME!

Transformation is nothing new in labour markets but the COVID-19 pandemic has accelerated many of the trends that we were already observing and the world of work is getting increasingly complex. It's time to simplify that complexity! The World Employment Conference 2021 will bring you the understanding, inspiration and global network that you need to thrive in such a labour market in transformation.

Explore the programme through the interface below, filtering by the topics or the formats of session that you are interested in.

Information

The legal implications of the “new labour market” in Europe and the Americas: legal analysis of WEC 2021 focus topics

Join us to discuss the legal implications involved in hiring and maintaining a work force in the “new labour market,” with special focus on:

Remote work, telework and wandering workers;

Speakers

Sonia Cortés
Partner
Littler

Juan Carlos Varela
Office Managing Shareholder
Littler

Sponsor Break-out Littler

Tuesday, September 7, 2021 12:00 PM to 12:45 PM
Concurrent session
Sponsored Break-out